PROCUREMENT OF CONSULTANCY SERVICES FOR VARIOUS GENDER AND DEVELOPMENT (GAD) INFORMATION DISSEMINATION AND CAPABILITY BUILDING ACTIVITIES

I. BACKGROUND

Art. II, Sec. 14, 1987 of the Philippine Constitution provides that "The State recognizes the role of women in nation-building, and shall ensure the fundamental equality before the law of women and men." Art. XIII, Sec. 14, 1987 of the same states that "The State shall protect working women by providing safe and healthful working conditions, taking into account their maternal functions, and such facilities and opportunities that will enhance their welfare and enable them to realize their full potential in the service of the nation."

Efforts to make governance gender responsive are promoted through various legislation which mandates non-discriminatory and pro-gender equality and equity measures to enable women's participation in the formulation, implementation, and evaluation of policies, plans, and programs for national, regional, and local development.

The Philippine Framework Plan for Women (FPW) indicated actions planned for gender responsive governance to be undertaken by government agencies, LGUs and civil society as follows:

On mainstreaming Gender and Development (GAD) in the bureaucracy –

1. Enforce compliance to GAD mainstreaming policies
2. Enhance existing structural mechanisms to accelerate mainstreaming of GAD
3. Localize GAD mainstreaming efforts
4. Enhance capability of local and regional GAD practitioners/ trainers to deliver GAD programs
5. Strengthen linkages and partnerships among various partners

On enhancing women's leadership roles and participation in decision-making–

1. Ensure equal representation of women in decision-making process at the local, national and international levels
2. Promote gender-responsive management and transformative leadership

On strengthening women's role in promoting gender-responsive governance –

1. Enhance role of women's organizations in anti-corruption programs
2. Enhance women's role in peace building and conflict resolution

In its attempt to strengthen the capacity of the state in its gender development initiative in 2013, John Hay Management Corporation strives to contribute in promoting the significant role of women in advancing national development. Conversely, the essential role of doing research prior to adopting and designing gender-responsive initiatives is also recognized by the agency. As such, this paper presents the results of the field interviews conducted to community members of the eleven (11) barangays within the Camp John Hay Reservation Area. Field interviews were conducted to identify and assess gender-related needs of the communities and to determine the likelihood of establishing partnerships with existing political (barangay council) and social (civil society organizations) institutions within the barangays towards a guaranteed sustainable GAD endeavor.

The allowed projects that have been implemented under the GAD budget include providing health services, advocating and disseminating information on gender issues, building capacity and providing technical assistance on GAD and other gender issues, establishing or improving service facilities for women, issuing policies on gender, establishing databases and mechanisms for reporting on gender issues, improving awareness of gender issues when undertaking development planning at the national and local levels, and revising textbooks to remove social and gender stereotypes.

II. OBJECTIVES

Through individual and group activities, the participants will be able to identify and develop the technical skills needed in integrating gender concerns into the development planning process, as part of mainstreaming in the Gender and Development (GAD) Program.

Specifically the activity aims to develop the capacity of the JHMC as an organization on the following:

1. Define gender, development and gender mainstreaming.
2. Define and appreciate the framework for gender responsiveness planning.
3. Identify gender needs.
4. Identify the stages and entry points to gender mainstreaming.
5. Assess the following and give recommendations on the following:
 - a. JHMC's GAD Plan
 - b. JHMC's gender responsiveness
6. Identify where to integrate and incorporate gender mainstreaming in the JHMC and in its programs, projects and activities (PAPs).
7. Prepare an action plan for gender mainstreaming.

III. DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES OF THE CONSULTANT

- a. Conduct of customized Training Course on Gender Sensitivity (GST) and Gender Responsive Planning (GRP) for JHMC and other stakeholders.
