Atty. Karen A. Tabisaura-Calulut is a seasoned legal practitioner with over 15 years of experience in public service, litigation, legal consultancy, and advocacy. Her diverse background spans work in both government and private sectors, where she has built a reputation for integrity, competence, and commitment to justice and community welfare.

Atty. Calulut earned her Bachelor of Laws and Letters from the University of Baguio in 2006. She also holds a Bachelor of Science in Nursing from Trinity College of Quezon City – St. Luke’s College of Nursing (now Trinity University of Asia), completed in 1998.

She currently serves as Partner at the Tabisaura-Calulut, Calulut Law Office, where she provides legal representation, advice, strategic legal guidance, and consultancy services. Over the years, she has also served as Legal Counsel to several corporations having diverse interests such as silverworks, tourism, digital marketing, communications, construction, realty, food & beverage, and print media.

Atty. Calulut’s government service includes her tenure as Attorney IV at the Department of Social Welfare and Development – Cordillera Administrative Region (DSWD-CAR). She also served as Legal Officer I at the Department of Foreign Affairs, where she handled administrative cases and facilitated the welfare and repatriation of Overseas Filipino Workers (OFWs). Her earlier government role as Administrative Assistant III at the City Mayor’s Office in Baguio saw her deeply engaged in inter-agency coordination, policy drafting, and protocol management.

Before pursuing law, she practiced as a Staff Nurse at St. Luke’s Medical Center Extension Clinic, further reflecting her multidisciplinary training and commitment to service.

Her broad-based expertise in legal policy, social welfare, corporate governance, and community engagement positions her as a valuable contributor to JHMC's mission of transparent, inclusive, and accountable governance in the John Hay Special Economic Zone.
